

It has been a great year for the Social Group. The group is made up of volunteer parents from all year groups who work hard throughout the year to organise fun events for the children and social gatherings for the parents of High March. Fundraising is also an added benefit for the school and charity.

This year has been another exciting and busy year with Upper School discos, Junior House circus and craft parties, and not forgetting the 'Elf School' and Father Christmas at the Christmas Fayre. In May we also hosted our dinner dance at the Crowne Plaza, where we were entertained by magicians, a great band and an exciting silent auction.

The Social Group has managed to raise an amazing £12,500 this year. Twenty percent of this will be donated to the charity Breast Cancer Now in memory of Leone Razali, mother of a Reception girl, who sadly passed away earlier this year. Plans have been made to fund the following for the benefit of High March pupils:

- Anti-bullying workshops
- Pilates/street dance workshops
- Interactive theatre days for Junior House

We are also looking to fund new equipment for the drama department.

We could not have done this without the incredibly generous and supportive High March parents, as well as the local businesses in Beaconsfield, so a big thank you to you all!

The volunteers on this year's Social Group are generous, creative people who give up their precious time for the good of the school community. They deserve a very special thanks for all of their hard work and dedication.
