

High March School Bulletin

Week 11 20.03.20

From Mrs Gater:

Although no week is ever the same when you work in a school, this week has certainly been like no other I have experienced! However, despite things being a little 'different' for us all, the children have remained the same wonderful, happiness-inducing individuals as always. So many Staff have commented on how brilliant they have all been in the face change and uncertainty. I know I have said this already, but I really think it cannot be said enough; the High March Staff have been truly fantastic. I am left with a huge sense of admiration and an even bigger debt of gratitude for all they have done.

As you know, arrangements are in place for remote learning to begin next week and plans are well underway for the provision of childcare for those parents who work in the key sectors defined by the government last night. We continue to communicate with you regarding access to these provisions – so please stay tuned!

I am very pleased to say that one competition that was not cancelled in the last couple of weeks was the 'Singing Picture' in Years 2 and 3. It was lovely to listen to every girl give a solo performance with even the most nervous giving it their all! Mr Hayes and I were faced with a very difficult challenge in choosing our winner, but after much careful consideration, I am pleased to share the following results. Very well done to you all!

High March Ball 26th June 2021: Save the Date

For the benefit of those parents who have joined the High March community since 2018, the triennial High March Ball is the highlight of the School social calendar.

Set in the idyllic Pigeon House Meadow, against the backdrop of the beautiful lake on the Hall Barn Estate in Old Beaconsfield, it is always a memorable evening of delicious cuisine, fine wines, great music and scintillating company.

The Committee is seeking a charity (or business) partner wishing to hold their own event on the Friday evening, thereby sharing marquee, décor and other costs. Previous partners have included NSPCC, Heart of Bucks and Alfriston School. If anyone has any connections to a worthy cause wishing to hold a high end event in the marquee on Friday 25th June 2021, please email bavery@highmarch.co.uk or tcrockford@highmarch.co.uk.

Social Group Notices

Given the daily changes in the current climate, all social group plans have sadly been put on hold. We thank you for your understanding and continued support. Whatever lies ahead, please stay safe, take care and be well. We wish you all a peaceful Easter.
